

Algarve :: Exploring the Algarve

[Sun & Style]

With more than 150 km of golden sandy beaches, embraced by the warm winds from North Africa, the Algarve is an all year round holiday destination. Glorious beaches and Stylish beach resorts at inviting prices are expecting you.

While the southern coastal region offers long stretches of fine sandy beaches broken up by stupendous rugged cliffs and fabulous grottoes, the northern area, the Espinhaco de Cao, Monchique and Caldeirão mountains ranges shelter the coastline from strong winds (one of Portugal's most luxuriant and charming areas, it is wreathed in fig trees, orange groves and almond trees).

Wherever you go you'll find a wide choice of activities like water sports (kayaking, windsurf, surf), golf, tennis and horse-riding, as well as numerous fishing ports, beaches, restaurants, cafés, quaint bars where you can sample delicious local cuisine, and of course wild night life.

[Program]
